

Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost

LITURGICAL COLOR: GREEN

Pentecost: The liturgical color is green, symbolic of the growth of faith. The church is asked to preach about the Lord's teachings concerning the Kingdom and to seek a growing faith in the church. These Sundays used to be known as Kingdomtide, but the universal church no longer recognizes Kingdomtide. We shift from red, the fire of the spirit, to green and the growth of faith.

CALL TO WORSHIP

HYMN # 145 Morning Has Broken

THE OPENING PRAYER (IN UNISON)

We seek your wisdom, O God, for it is eternal. It makes the difference in how we view life and how we shape our living. We know that your thoughts and our thoughts are not the same. Help us surrender our own intelligence to your care and keeping. We desire to have the influence of holiness in our thinking and doing. Help the Bible come alive for us. Let its lessons and stories penetrate our spirits. Visit our hearts and minds this morning and reclaim our hearts that we may serve you with energy and enthusiasm. We bow before your greatness and express our gratitude that you are mindful of us. We pray in the name of the teacher of truth, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
